Hi Karen

Thanks so much for your help - Emily has been able to remain fly-free during this hot spell and hopefully for the rest of the summer - she has suffered dreadfully from fly bites in the past - even with a fly rug!

She has also had a [muddy leg issues-free] [REDACTED]-free winter thanks to the oil - again I have tried everything in the past but with no real success.

A friend's old horse, who suffered from really bad [muddy environments attacking the legs] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [fungal & wet-weather related issues on the back] [REDACTED], is now running around like a spring chicken with clean legs and back thanks to his shampoo and oil!!

Thanks again

Mel
