Hi Karen

I have suffered with [REDACTED] [severe mood swings] for 20 years and am addicted to my anti-[REDACTED] [mood managing product]. I have physical and emotional withdrawals when i don't take them. So thank you for your suggestions.

Since taking your Vitamin D3 [5000 IU strength] i have had no emotional withdrawals. Hooray!!! My moods are also less erratic.

The bio-kult probiotics seem to be helping with my numerous [REDACTED] [areas of pus] too. They definitely helped my mum last month at my dad's funeral. She was so stressed that she was up the whole night before in pain with really bad stomach problems. Both ends!!! She couldn't keep anything down including medicines. I insisted she take 2 capsules straight away. They stayed down and she made it through the service. She is now buying some herself!!! They're also fab for preventing [REDACTED] [fungal issues] when i'm on anti-biotics.

Thanks again.
Kelly
