Hi Karen
Hope you had a great Christmas and have a happy (and busy!!) New Year.
I thought you might be interested in a couple of photos of Cloe's tail.

The first pic is just after I had bought her last summer (about June) and had just started using your Ruggle-it oil.

The second is taken this New Years Eve, when I had been messing about with her and grooming. I just wondered if we had grown enough tail to plait - please excuse the state of the plait but gloomy stable light and cold wet fingers didn't help!!

I can't believe how well the oil has worked, not only clearing up the sore scabby patches from [REDACTED] [summer itching], but the whole of her dock was swollen and [REDACTED] [badly irritated] and is now normal. People who have seen Cloe can't believe how different she looks and at some point I'll get some decent photos taken of 'the whole horse' and send these on.

Here's hoping we've found the coping mechanism we need for when this years sweet itch season arrives!

Love
Sara Xx
